MR. ASHOK PURI, A DUBAI-BASED INVESTOR, VISITS THE DIASPORA AFRICAN FORUM YOUTH EMPOWERMENT TRAINING CENTER IN GHANA.

On Saturday 18th May, 2024, Mr. Ashok Puri, A major investor from Dubai looking to invest in Ghana visited the Diaspora African Forum Youth Empowerment Training Centers (DAFYETC).

Mr. Ashok Puri is the Chairman of the MGT Group, a Dubai-based corporation that has secured a significant reputation by developing its business along diverse lines such as camp supply/operation, humanitarian aid, national reconstruction, industrial and infrastructure development. MGT Group aims to extend its reach to West Africa's Atlantic Coast, Ghana, and as part of Mr. Ashok's itinerary, he paid a visit to the Diaspora African Forum Youth Empowerment Training Centers.

The Diaspora African Forum Youth Empowerment Training Center was set up to equip young people with the skills, knowledge, resources, and opportunities necessary to enhance their personal and social development. We deem it our social mandate to empower the youth and help create a better Ghana and a better Africa ultimately.

Mr. Kevin Williams, Director of DAFYETC and Mr. Mahar Cooke, Deputy Director of DAFYETC have set up two training facilities through their capable leadership. The first facility is located in the Impact Hub, Osu, and the second in the Accra Digital Center, Ring Road West- Accra. DAFYETC has the aim to expand to other parts of Ghana to make training accessible to all. (<https://www.dafyetc.com>)

The Diaspora African Forum Youth Empowerment Training Center looks forward to all possible partnerships to come out of this investment meeting with Mr. Ashok Puri.
